Dear Sewing Guild-

We are all firm believers that things always work out and we have seen that evident yet again! Let me explain:

Last Friday, we had a young mother come in for assistance with her two small children. Both boys were quite a handful for her. She had them dressed in light-weight jackets with no hats or gloves. We had commented to her that they were not appropriately dressed for the weather (the youngest was in footed pj's). We had run out of our beautiful hat sets, but thought of them immediately! Linda mentioned that she had seen your group on the hall schedule, so we knew help was right around the corner!

"Thank you" only goes so far and can only convey so much, but "you are needed" and "you are doing such a good thing", may go a little further to let you know how much we appreciate your works.

Looks like we have a call to make to a young mother and her two little boys!

Thank you sincerely,

Marcia Klochyn
